A healthy diet is essential for good health and nutrition. It protects your body against heart disease, diabetes, cancer, and many other chronic non-communicable diseases.

Keeping active and eating a healthy balanced diet can help you to maintain a healthy weight.

Work with your Nurse Care Manager to learn more and to help manage your weight and eating habits with practical lifestyle approaches.